Your honor,

I just wanted to make you aware you were deceived by DCFS today in this matter. Here are screenshots of text messages between myself and Michelle Trahan, the Home Development Supervisor for DCFS as you can see, she clearly states foster care was Advised my certification was

I am needing to know why the agency is saying I'm not certified when I sent everything to Christina already

The suspension was taken off the day you sent Christine the bank information and your certification at this time is current.

Well they told the judge today I wasn't certified
